SEPTEMBER 2008

SEPTEMBER 15 MEETING AT URBAN BAR AND CORNER CAFE AT 6:45PM

City People holds a membership meeting and social gathering on the third Monday of each month. The September 15 meeting will take place at Urban Bar and Corner Café, 109 S. Central Street, at 6:45 p.m. Urban Bar has a great corner patio location right in the heart of The Old City. Great place to people watch and enjoy a cold drink.

The meeting at Urban Bar and Corner Café will follow the September City People Board of Directors meeting, which will take place at 5:30 p.m. in the Design Innovations Office at 402 S. Gay Street, just above Mast General Store (use the DIA entrance to the right of the Mast front doors and go upstairs to Room 201). Members are always welcome to observe Board meetings.

Future City People Membership Meetings will be October 20 at Sapphire at 428 S. Gay St., and November 17 at La Costa on Market Square. Please mark your calendars now!

UPCOMING SUNSPHERE EVENT

City People will be invited up to the Sunsphere for a social on Tuesday, October 7 from 6-9 p.m. Enjoy light hors d'oeuvres, drinks, and possibly the best views of downtown Knoxville just as the sun sets. Please mark your calendars now! Registration information will be provided shortly on www.citypeople.org

SAVE THE DATE: PROGRESSIVE DINNER NOV 15

The June progressive dinner was a great success, and since it's held in homes, was limited in number of attendees. If you didn't make the June four-course Italian feast which included wine and a souvenir City People glass, here is your chance: City People will hold another progressive dinner on Saturday, November 15 with a Mexican/fiesta theme. To minimize walking, we're looking for members living in The Old City or the 100 Block of Gay Street areas who are willing to host a course. If interested, please email Director Debbie Roberts at debbieroberts6@gmail.com. City People wine glasses from the previous dinner are on sale at $5 a piece.

LANTERN & CARRIAGE TOUR AT OLD GRAY CEMETERY

History becomes alive at Old Gray as you stroll through 13 acres of the cemetery and visit with Knoxvilleians from the past on Sunday, September 28, 2008 from 4-7 p.m. (Rain or Shine). Through reenactors you will be introduced to an officially pensioned Civil War nurse, a police chief who died as a result of an accident, a family of probable Melungeon ancestry, a mother of a renowned British children's author, the father of a famous playwright named Tennessee and a World War II veteran. This family event encourages young and old to enjoy a carriage ride in Knoxville's oldest planned cemetery. Throughout the grounds there will be artists on location and World War II reenactors. $ 10.00 Adults $ 5.00 Students. No Reservations required. 543 North Broadway, Knoxville. Parking across the street at St. John's Lutheran Church and Emory Park Place. Information: (865) 522 - 1424, www.DiscoverET.org/oldgray

ETHS AND KNOXVILLE CIGAR EVENTS

City People members enjoyed a sneak peek reception at the East Tennessee Historical Society on Gay Street, heralding the new, permanent exhibit that traces the history of our region's land and people back hundreds of years. Those in attendance were impressed at the amount of information – one could easily spend hours there! Thanks to ETHS for hosting City People, and please consider taking your friends and family to learn more about the history of East Tennessee.

City People also wishes to thank Knoxville Cigar Company for hosting our August membership meeting!
